❖ Academic Calendar Burapha University

1st Semester: early September - early December

2nd Semester: early January - early May

Summer Session: late May - late July

❖ History

Burapha University was originally established as the Bang Saen College of Education on July 8, 1955 and offered degrees in teaching. The college has developed into a branch campus of Srinakharinwirot University in Bangkok from 1974 and began offering degrees in several other areas.

In 1990, the Bang Saen campus was upgraded to the level of a fully accredited university and renamed Burapha University, which means “University of the East”. Today the university offers a wide variety of degrees in many disciplines of the arts, sciences, technologies, health care and humanities. At present there is an enrollment of over 50,000 on the three campuses.

❖ University Mission

1. Generate intellectual knowledge and management practices to enhance social development.

2. Provide world-class standard education in order to produce ethically minded, specialized, and potential graduates.

3. Provide academic services to the society in order to establish it an intellectual richness and self reliant society.

4. Support and maintain Thai arts, culture and Thai identity.

5. Enhance strengths of the University through the establishment of highly effective management system making it independent and self-sufficient.

❖ University Vision

Wisdom of the East for the Future of the Nations.

❖ Philosophy

To establish intellect, to encourage the search for knowledge and morality, and to guide society.

❖ Motto

Gaining wisdom provides happiness.
