

ABI/INFORM COMPLETE

ABI/INFORM COMPLETE is the world's most comprehensive and diverse business database. Users can search for journals, articles, and full text to study on economics, business trends, and other strategies.

Basic Search

1. Type keyword
2. Select full text or Peer reviewed
3. Click Search

Advance Search

1. Type keyword
2. Limit search result
3. Select and/or/not
4. Select full text or Peer reviewed
5. Select publication year
6. Fill in Search option
7. Select source type
8. Select type of document
9. Select document feature
10. Select document language
11. Select sort result
12. Click Search

Command Line search

1. Type command line
2. Limit search result
3. Select display option
4. Click Search

Data & Report Search

1. Type keyword
2. Limit search result
3. Select report type
4. Select period of time
5. Fill in search option
6. Select result sort
7. Click Search

ABI/INFORM COMPLETE

Look Up Citation

Look up Citation is a search via references such as Publication title, Volume, Issue, and Start page.

Publication Search

Publication Search is a list search

1. Type keyword of publication name
2. Limit search result then click Search

Publication Search

1. Search topic in selected journal
2. Select issue

Browse Featured Search

Select interested topic then click at the interested topic

Search Result

1. Click Citation/Abstract, or Full Text
2. Limit search result by using Narrow results by
3. Click Search within to search within the result
4. Click Modify search to refine search

My Research Account

My Research account is an account users can use to save searching word, RSS Feeds, and other documents

1. Click Create a My Research accounts
2. Fill in the information and click create account